

SOUTH AFRICAN
SPORTS COMMISSION

CODE OF CONDUCT

PREAMBLE

This code of conduct indicates the standard of behaviour expected of a member of an association. It is a formal statement of the values and ethical standards that guide individuals in sport. It is a set of principles, and norms to which sporting people can be held accountable when representing South Africa at any sporting event. This can also be used as a point of reference when dealing with disciplinary procedures against members.

INTRODUCTION:

With the number of bad behaviours and illegal actions we have experienced in sport in the past, a mechanism on how to eliminate these actions has been sought. This is why a code of conduct has been drawn up to hold all sports persons accountable for their actions.

VALUE STATEMENT:

The Purpose of this code is:

- To outline incorrect and unacceptable actions/behaviours within sport and to encourage ethical behaviour within sport, so that when the code is contravened the appropriate disciplinary action can with consistency be taken, thus responding to offences and preventing re-occurrence.
- To help to resolve conflict.
- To make ethical behaviour infringement easy to identify.
- To enhance the ethical reputation of sports persons.
- To promote respect for human dignity, rights and social justice.

- Provide a framework for all sporting persons to conduct their sporting activities according to the following ethical principles:
 - Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every human being.
 - Being fair, considerate, honest and respect for the law.
 - Being trustworthy and professional, accepting responsibilities for their action.
 - Refraining from any racial, gender, verbal, physical or emotional abuse or harassment.
 - Always making a positive contribution and refraining from destructive criticism.
 - Always acting in the interest of South African sport.

APPLICABILITY:

- a) The code shall apply to any and all participants/players who participate/attend any competition/event, which is held under the auspices of the relevant National Federation, or any of the associations, which are members of, or affiliated to the relevant federation.
- b) The code shall apply to any administrator involved in the administration of the relevant sport at any level within South Africa and who thereby falls under the auspices of that relevant National Federation.
- c) The code shall apply to any coach involved in coaching a team/individual for any event/competition, which falls under the auspices of the National Federation.
- d) The code shall apply to any technical official involved in officiating or training at any event/competition which falls under the auspices of the National Federation.

SUCCESS OF A CODE OF CONDUCT

This code of conduct can only be successful if:

- The athletes, officials, coaches and administrators familiarize themselves with the content of the Code.
- National federations and macro-bodies frequently refer to the Code of Conduct for guidance.

- The code of ethics is included/captured in the national federation's rules/constitution and SASC color regulations.
- Anyone who fails to conform their conduct to the following code of conduct they will be subject to disciplinary action according to their relevant federation's constitution or disciplinary procedures.

BEFORE GOING AGAINST THE CODE OF CONDUCT A PERSON SHOULD ASK THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- Is it legal and constitutional?
- What does the code of conduct say?
- How would it look in tomorrow's newspaper?
- Does it comply with the federation's rules and regulations?
- How does it make me feel?
- Is it against the federations or professional standards?
- Will it reflect negatively on my federation or me?
- Whom else this could affect?
- Would I be embarrassed if others knew I took this course of action?
- Is there an alternative action that does not pose an ethical conflict?
- What would a reasonable person think?
- Can I sleep at night?

ADMINISTRATORS

I pledge to:

- Do my best to ensure that all athletes are given an equal opportunity to participate, regardless of gender, ability or ethnic background.
